

COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE.

FLAT RIVER NEWS.

Born, March 11, 1906, to the wife of Wm. Casby of Esther, a son.

Smith DeGrand, of Taylor Place has been seriously ill for some time.

J. F. Hicks of Libertyville was here on business last Friday and Sunday.

Marvin Norwine left for St. Louis Saturday to spend a few days with college classmates.

Mrs. L. Darling took her little son Lewis to an ear specialist in St. Louis last Wednesday.

Miss Lulu Counts, who is teaching here, spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents near Farmington.

Prof. and Mrs. Paul Price of Ste. Genevieve spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Simpson of Libertyville spent Friday night here with their cousin, Mrs. Tracy.

Miss Stella DeGrand returned Saturday from a week's visit with her sister, Mrs. G. V. Whitener, at Leadwood.

Ed. S. W. Robinson, who has been living at Libertyville the past two years, moved his family here the latter part of last week.

Miss Maggie Mitchell, who is teaching at Bonmark, and her sister, Miss Claire of Libertyville, were here Saturday visiting friends.

Died, March 13, 1906, a son of Preston Burns, aged three years, and the remains were taken to Doe Run Wednesday for interment.

C. R. Pratt and Alvin Rucker returned Saturday from Oklahoma and we understand that Mr. Rucker bought a private bank at Jones, Okla.

Messrs. C. M. Murray and C. M. Heintman of Libertyville were touring the Lead Belt Saturday and Sunday, taking an inventory of the political outlook.

RURAL ROUTE NO. 3

Here comes the old lady of rural route No. 3 again. The readers of THE TIMES will have to excuse her, for she has been sick herself, and us old women away out on route three have to gossip about for quite awhile before we have anything to tell.

John Marks, Jr., sold a fine mule to Ed. Stain last week.

We are glad to note that Mrs. Jacob Larby is much better at this writing.

Mr. Larby sold the Belser brothers five fine three-year-old steers recently.

Allen Horn has rented his farm to Charles Horn and is moving to Flat River.

Joseph Rudy is teaching a class in vocal music at Pleasant Hill church this week.

H. Harrelson, who has been teaching at Ozark, Mo., went to St. Louis on business last week.

Leroy Drake, who had an operation performed on his nose and ears by Dr. Smith, is convalescing.

Married, on the 8th inst., at the home of the bride's parents, Oscar Phillips and Miss Mattie Horn of near Chestnut Ridge, Rev. S. P. Brite of the Farmington Baptist Church officiating.

Mrs. Rudy, relief of the late Rev. J. F. Rudy, is moving out to her son-in-law's, William Marks.

Mr. Daughlish of Farmington is moving to St. Louis this week where he will work at his trade. He is a fine carpenter.

The little 13-month-old baby of Mr. Rih, on the late William Marks farm, which has been dangerously ill with erysipelas, is much improved.

There will be services at Chestnut Ridge church Saturday, the 17th, at 2 p. m., and Sunday at 11 a. m., by Rev. C. T. Fortune, the pastor. Everybody is invited.

Our friend Henry Manley of the Klein Grocer Co. has had a commodious livery built on his farm near Chestnut Ridge and is going into the poultry business on a large scale.

Mrs. Irving and daughter of near Clinton, Ill., have been visiting Mrs. Irving's brother, T. H. Porter, of near Chestnut Ridge, for the past two weeks. Mr. Porter and his sister have not met before for over twenty-five years. It must have been a happy meeting.

Joel J. Laws is feeding five good steers for the spring market. J. S. Phillips is also feeding four steers and Charles Yeager is feeding ten head of year-old Hereford calves for the spring trade. We are glad to see so many of our farmers taking an interest in breeding fine cattle; it bespeaks for them prosperity.

We congratulate the patrons of route No. 4 in securing mail boxes for the low price of $4.25 each, for which the patrons of No. 3 had to pay $2.50 for no better box. It was represented to the patrons of No. 3 that no one key would unlock two boxes, but it has been discovered that one key will unlock three or four boxes.

Mr. Editor, we coincide with what you say of the action of the Democratic Central Committee in endorsing Hon. M. R. Smith for Congress. You voice the sentiment of all true Democrats. Now, let us all go out to the primary and roll up such a rolling majority for our friend and neighbor that it will make the Republicans feel blue.

LIBERTYVILLE DOINGS.

All kinds of weather now.

Ben Cowley has the mumps.

Less Hughes is recovering from his illness.

Mr. Hampton, a few miles north of here, is seriously ill.

Robert Ward of Mine la Motte visited here Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. N. C. Beard of Womack visited her son, Wiley, here last week.

J. L. Simpson and family spent a few days with Thos. Boyd of Coffman last week.

Everett Caruthers of Yount visited his cousin, Mrs. P. A. Cashion, here Monday.

J. C. Williams delivered fifteen head of beef cattle to State Hospital No. 4 last Friday.

The earth is all covered with water and ice this morning, and the chances for our old farmers sowing oats look very gloomy.

Andrew Kennedy, J. F. O'Bannon's head sawyer, has pulled up stakes and left, and his brother has taken his place at the mill.

Miss Letha Hale of Piedmont is expected here toward the last of this month and will instruct quite a number in instrumental music.

Another member of the Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Company has burned out. It appears that a great many fires are occurring recently.

We notice a few candidates have announced. Come on, boys, we are ready to throw off our coats and wade into the conflict for the best men.

C. W. Lewis has moved from what is known as the Leeper farm to a place north of Farmington, and T. W. Martin will move to the farm vacated by Mr. Lewis.

Prof. S. W. Robinson closed a very successful term of school March 31 at Cross Roads, and moved to Flat River last Friday. We are sorry Mr. Robinson has left us, but our loss is the gain of the good people of Flat River.

The citizens of Liberty township want some good man to run for County Judge. Quite a number have expressed themselves in favor of W. M. Smith and some in favor of R. V. Tillman. The question is who will enter the race from this township. The people of Liberty township should have a representative on the county bench, and who will it be?

SLEEPLESS THREE YEARS

STRANGE AFFLICTION OF ST LOUIS WOMAN THAT PUZZLES PHYSICIANS AND FRIENDS.

Friends of Mrs. Anna B. Hampton, 1422 Michigan Ave., St. Louis, are wondering at her sudden recovery from a strange affliction that has baffled several physicians for the past three years.

Speaking of her case recently Mrs. Hampton said she had spent three years of sleepless nights and that her long siege of wakefulness had greatly impaired her general health. "It was all brought on, she declared, by a poor, weak stomach. My food did not digest and would ferment in the stomach causing gases to form and much suffering to follow. I lost strength and would frequently have dizzy spells and headaches. My entire system became weakened and deranged. Doctors told me it was general debility and although several of them treated me I did not improve. I would lay awake at night and in the mornings would feel more tired than when I went to bed. I was in despair when I was strongly advised to try the Cooper medicines that were working so many wonders in similar cases and I purchased and began using a small quantity as a test. The result was far beyond my expectations. I began to improve immediately and now after using Cooper's New Discovery and Quinine Relief for a short time, I am quite my old self again."

"I eat heartily and digest well. I am much stronger, always sleep well and get up in the morning refreshed. I thank Mr. Cooper with all my heart for the restoration of my health."

Cooper's New Discovery cures Stomach and Kidney trouble, Catarrh, Deafness, Blood Diseases, Rheumatism and Paralysis and sells for one dollar per bottle. Cooper's Quick Relief, the assistant remedy costs fifty cents. The medicines can be obtained only of E. M. LAAKMAN, Farmington, Mo.
